Joe Arnold is at home again.

All kinds of linens, lace, edgings, and trimmings of every variety at Burger's.

George Dougherty of the Jonesboro Advertiser was in the city yesterday, on business connected with his paper.

Burger has a complete line of hosiery of all kinds, and corsets, collars, cuffs, etc., in unlimited variety.

We hear of a down-town man who says there are "snakes and monkeys" in his boots. He might be able to stand the snakes; but when they double up on him and both come at once, look out.

The enterprising merchant of Washington avenue, Mr. Mosevics, will until the 20th inst., dispose of his large stock of goods, notions, etc., at cost. Call on him if you want bargains.

Mr. O. P. Lyon was taken seriously ill day before yesterday in the afternoon, and up to yesterday morning was very sick. However, he was much better last night, and we hope to soon hear of his entire recovery.

Burger has just received and opened a large stock of damasks, napkins, towels, etc., etc., all of which will be sold cheaper than they can be bought anywhere else in town.

The contract for lowering the sidewalks and fence around the court-house, having been awarded Mr. Richard Fitzgerald, that gentleman yesterday began the work, and expects to have the job done in a few days.

Mr. J. M. Mosevics is closing out his entire stock of goods at cost. The goods must be sold, as Mr. Mosevics expresses a determination to have his shelves clear and ready for his successor on the 20th of June.

The Christian Union Sunday school picnic will come off in the grove near America station, C. & V. railroad, Tuesday the 10th inst. A cordial invitation extended to all who wish to take a part. Train leaves at 8:30 a. m. Fare round trip, 25 cents.

New stock and new styles of wall paper, linens, window glass, etc., etc., at R. F. Meigs' new store, Washington avenue and Eleventh street. Call and see the latest styles in wall paper before purchasing elsewhere.

Burger is now offering for sale a splendid assortment of dress silks, Japanese suitings, etc., etc., at the most reasonable rates.

To rent a small family-cottage on Tenth street, between Washington and Walnut, containing three rooms and hall. Has been put in good repair, painted inside and out. Door yard large and dry. Rent $12 50 per month, in advance. References required. Inquire at THE BULLETIN office.

E. A. BURNETT.

A new and beautiful assortment of green dines are now for sale at Burger's. Call and see them.

If you want the water in your cisterns to be healthy, Use Avery's patent Pump, At C. R. Woodward's.

Dr. Wood and Mr. Hudson have them in use.

Burger has just received a full line of summer dress goods of every description, which will be sold cheaper than the cheapest.

Mr. J. M. Mosevics, the enterprising dealer in dry goods, Washington avenue between Ninth and Tenth streets, offers his large and varied stock of goods at cost prices. His store is full of the choicest of dry goods of every variety and quality, and the prices at which he is disposing of them are astonishingly low. Call upon him and satisfy yourself.

Swiss maids, varietons, French and Hamburg embroideries at Burger's. Great bargains.

Mellale yesterday arrested a down-town vegetable dealer, for this: that in the yard in the rear of the house in which he does business, he has deposited all sorts of decayed vegetables, chicken heads, entrails, feathers, etc., to such an extent that the street which arises from it has become an annoyance to the whole neighborhood round about. He was fined $3 and costs, which he paid. Served him right.

Senator Ware of Jonesboro, was in the city Wednesday and Thursday last. Ware is one man in ten thousand—honest, modest and able. In the senate he was not prominent because not noisy, but he speedily won the respect and confidence of his colleagues, and exercised much influence. What he asked for he got, because everybody knew he would ask for nothing for himself or constituents he did not have a right to receive. We are a thorough Ware man—every inch of us.

Parasols and a large lot of custom made boots and shoes are sold cheap at Burger's.

Our citizens are again reminded of the entertainment to be given at the Athenaeum on Monday and Tuesday evening next, by Madame Brinkerhoff. The "Home Brinkerhoff" speaks of her as follows: "Madame Brinkerhoff gave the entire scene 'Sedilia' from 'Norma,' with 'Casta Diva' and the 'Cabaleta,' following with fine effect, the music suiting her grand voice well in the first, staccato and chromatic runs in the second." Tickets will be sold at Mr. Dan. Hartman's auction store on Commercial avenue.

This is to inform the people of Cairo that Rev. C. Duerchner, pastor of the German Lutheran church of this city, has opened a school wherein both the German and English languages will be taught. If there are those among our American born citizens who wish to have their children learn to read, write and speak the German language, they now have an opportunity to gratify that wish. Rev. Duerchner is a thorough German and English scholar, and will spare no effort to make the school of which he is principal a success.

By order of the BOARD OF DIRECTORS. 6-4-73

The street lamps on the corners of several streets are nearly covered by the foliage of shade trees; some of the lamp posts are nearly broken away; some of the lanterns are rotten, leaving the flame exposed to the wind which frequently blows them out. Whose duty is it to have the lanterns replaced by new ones, and whose duty is it to have the branches of trees cut off, so that the lamps may answer the purpose for which they were intended? And, by the way, there ought to be a lamp at each corner of the custom-house square. Several are also needed on Commercial avenue between Second and Sixth streets, and between Eleventh and Eighteenth streets. To whom shall we appeal to have these lamps provided, and who will answer our question above propounded?

NEW GOODS. Mr. Anna Lang on Eighth street, between Commercial and Washington avenues, has just opened out a stock of new and fashionable millinery goods. She has one hundred and fifty different styles of hats and bonnets, besides a large assortment of ribbons, flowers and notions of all sorts, all of which will be sold at the lowest prices.

WASHING WORK. Mrs. Coleman takes this method of washing the public that she is now prepared to do all kinds of fine laundry work, at cheap rates. Pressing, ironing, etc., done at a small advance upon the plain clothes. Customers are invited to call on her. Coleman's residence on Fourth street, south of Commercial and Washington, and Commercial streets.

The Mount Carmel Register says: "A fat Cairo alderman was brought before the Court, on Friday, for disposing of his wares without taking out a license. Fined $10 and costs." The only very fat alderman is Mr. Bixby, and we know he has not been out of the city for many months. Mr. Morris is also fat, but he deals in insurance policies, and votes with Nellie. It could not therefore have been Morris. Mr. Robinson is also fat, but he deals in rents, and how could he have exposed his wares to the Mount Carmel, license or no license? Mr. Meyers, the tobaccoist, is also fat, but he never was in Mount Carmel, and never intends to be. The other aldermen are very comparatively fat, and in fact are only lean. We therefore conclude that the Mount Carmel Register is a liar if not, to borrow a phrase of the lamented Greeley, "a horse thief and a liar."

Another well-filled house greeted the Selden Irwin troupe at the Athenaeum last night, and we believe every one went away well pleased with the manner in which the performance—Bip Van Winkle—was put upon the boards. Hainforth, as Bip Van Winkle, was all around more than could reasonably have been expected from so young a man. We venture the assertion that there are very few persons in the country who are his superiors in this play. Indeed, every one of the troupe were fully up to their parts, and did nobly. To-night, which will be the last performance the company will give in this city, has been set aside as a benefit to the manager, Mr. Selden Irwin. "All is not gold that glitters," and the celebrated comedy "Solon Shingle" will constitute the evening's entertainment. As this is a benefit to Mr. Irwin, who has made hosts of warm friends during the stay of the company in this city, it is hoped and expected that a crowded house will greet them on this occasion.

Wines, the secretary of the state board of charities, was in the city yesterday. He had been at Thebes looking at the poor-house, and while there threw a glance or two at our county and city jails. If there is a good judge of a bad poor house or prison house in the country, Wines is one. He has studied the subject, has gone down to its bottom and touched all its sides. It is therefore unnecessary to remark here that Wines is down on our poor house, and shockingly distressed about our jail. He could not refuse to be, even if he were an indifferent judge of alms houses and jails. But how can we help it? We haven't got any money to build better houses, and we have all the poor, and all the thieves and other rascals of Memphis, St. Louis and Paducah to care for. If Wines could manage to pick up in his travels a model poor house and three or four unobjectionable jails, and send them to us, we would be very thankful. Judge Gross might reduce the express charges on them a dollar or two, in pursuance of a habit he has fallen into, but he would take the buildings, and vote Wines thanks and three cheers.

FAREWELL BENEFIT. A farewell benefit to Mr. Selden Irwin will be given to-night, and a fine bill presented. We hope a full house may greet Mr. Irwin. He is a gentleman and a good actor. During his several visits to Cairo he has made many personal friends and has become a favorite of nearly all our play-goers. His company is composed of fine material, and is in every way worthy of public patronage. Give him a full house.

Fred Schavening, drunk and disorderly, was fined two dollars and the trimmings. He was sent to the city jail for three days.

Chas. Jackson, for the same offense, the only difference being that he was a little drunker than Schavening, was fined three dollars and costs, and sent to labor on the streets until the fine and costs are paid.

Michael Sherlock, for disorderly and offensive conduct, was arrested by chief of police McHale. He was fined two dollars and trimmings, which he rather unwillingly paid.

COUNTY COURT. In the county court yesterday, William Martin, county treasurer, filed his report, showing that a debt of $200.77, and credits to the amount of $57.75 $8. The balance in his hands is $142.99 77. The report was approved and ordered filed.

By order of the court the road districts in this district were re-established as follows: Township No. 17, 17 w, and fractional township No. 1, 17 w, as district No. 1.

Township 17, 17 w, as district No. 2.

Township 16, 16 w, and fractional township 15, 16 w, as district No. 3.

Township 15, 15 w, as district No. 4.

Township 14, 14 w, as district No. 5.

Township 13, 13 w, and fractional township 12, 13 w, as district No. 6.

Township 12, 12 w, as district No. 7.

Township 11, 11 w, as district No. 8.

The county clerk was directed to make an estimate of amount of road tax due to each district as re-established.

The office of highway commissioner having been abolished, the sheriff of county was directed to pay over all road tax collected by him to the county treasurer; and the highway commissioners required to make a report of their action as such commissioners to the county court by the second Monday in July next. The county treasurer was to keep a separate account with each road district of the amount of money received and paid out by him.

The court appointed the following named persons supervisors of roads in the districts set off by their respective names:

Road district No. 1, Richard Fitzgerald.

" " " " 3, Elijah Dickerson.

" " " " 4, Wm. J. Wilford.

" " " " 5, Thomas Brown.

" " " " 6, Geo. W. Short.

PLANTERS' TOBACCO WAREHOUSE.

SALE OF TOBACCO YESTERDAY—CAIRO AS A TOBACCO MARKET.

It is certainly not a wild prophecy to say that the time will come when Cairo will be one of the best tobacco markets in the country. There are reasons to support such a conclusion that will impress themselves upon the mind of the intelligent person who appreciates the location of Cairo, with respect alike to the great tobacco regions of the South and Southwest, the tobacco manufacturing cities of St. Louis, Chicago and Detroit, and the great avenues of trade and travel between the South and the Northeast and Atlantic seaboard.

Tobacco can be shipped from Cairo for St. Louis, Chicago, Detroit, New York or Boston at lower rates than those fixed from Paducah, Clarksville, Evansville or Louisville.

Tobacco buyers from the cities of the Northwest can attend sales in Cairo and return home within thirty-six hours.

Their attendance upon the sales of any other market would involve a loss of four or five days, and an outlay of money to correspond.

Tobacco from all the surrounding country can be collected in Cairo at a less cost than would attend its carriage to any other market.

No charge is made for drayage in Cairo and tobacco is handled here as cheaply as at any point in the United States.

The sales yesterday comprised about 50 hogheads, mostly of low grades. The attendance at the sale was good, and every hoghead offered was promptly taken at good and satisfactory prices. Prices ranged from $5 65 to $10 90. There were no rejections.

NEW PHOTOGRAPH GALLERY. Mr. J. Fehling, the celebrated photographer of this city, has removed from his old stand to his splendid new gallery on Eighth street, north side, between Commercial and Washington avenues. This new gallery far surpasses anything of the kind that has heretofore been seen in Cairo. It is fitted up in the best style, with the intention of doing nothing but perfect work. The ladies' dressing room is beautifully furnished, and the operating room has a skylight unobscured by any in the West.

Mr. Schlesinger hopes to have heretofore given to him their patronage, will continue to do so. To them and the public generally he extends an invitation to visit his rooms, whether desiring work done at present or not, satisfied that the appearance of his gallery, the many conveniences he has procured—indeed, all the latest improvements in his art—and the skill of an operator of great merit, lately of London, Mr. Frank Locke Steele, will command their patronage when they shall need work to be done.

COMMERCIAL HOTEL. This popular hotel has been refitted and improved, and is now one of the most comfortable stopping places in the city. The traveling public and persons desiring pleasant quarters by the week or month, will always find them at the Commercial hotel. Rates of board have been reduced as follows: Day board, $1 50 per week; transit, $1 50 per day; board and lodging, from $5 to $7 per week.

10,000 DOLLAR WORTH. John Arrin, the chief among Cairo clothing men, has just received an invoice of hats to the amount of ten thousand dollars. All of the latest, newest and "nobbiest" styles—straw, felt, beaver, etc., etc., to which he invites the attention of all who wear hats. His stock of ready made clothing is not excelled outside of New York city. It is worth a day's travel to see his goods.

ICE CREAM SALOON. As warm weather is approaching the lovers of ice cream will be glad to learn that Messrs. Sapp & Clarkson have fitted up and refurnished, in elegant style, their ice cream parlors. Their mammoth soda fountain has also been put in running order, and nothing is wanting about the establishment to make the pleasure and comfort of their patrons complete.

PUBLIC SALE. On Saturday morning at ten o'clock, at the lively stable of B. F. Fields, on Tenth street between Washington avenue and Walnut street, a lot of horses and mules, second-hand buggies and carriages. Sale positive. Persons wanting a good bargain should not fail to attend.

FOR SALE. A cabinet organ, as good as new, and of first-class manufacture will be sold low and on easy terms by applying to Mrs. M. J. Dewey, Cor. Washington Ave. and Fourteenth St. 6-4-73.

WANTED—SITUATION. By a young man of considerable experience both in dry goods and grocery business. For further particulars enquire at Cundiff's grocery store, Eighth street. 6-5-73.

FOR SALE. A house, 8 rooms and 5 closets, with one lot and a half, corner of Twenty-first and Poplar streets, on easy terms. For further information, apply on the premises. 5-20-73.

The most beautiful percales, jacquets and other white dress goods ever brought to this market, can be bought for exceedingly low prices at Burger's.

RIVER NEWS. ARRIVALS. Steamer Longworth, Cincinnati Groger, St. Louis.
